PHILADELPHIA Dec [illegible]—Mayor [illegible] gave a dinner to-night [illegible] Grant. Among the guests were Admiral Ammen, who [illegible] Grant's acceptance of the presidency of the company to carry out the projected Nicaraguan canal. The admiral would not converse on the subject, stating that his answer to DeLesseps' recent [illegible] would appear shortly.

Grant will Accept.

PHILADELPHIA Dec 18—Gen Grant had an interview to-day with Admiral Ammen on the Nicaraguan canal project. Nothing definite as to the general's intentions can be learned, but remarks made by Admiral Ammen to personal friends are construed into the belief on his part that Gen Grant will accept the presidency of the canal company.

Grant has not Accepted

PHILADELPHIA Dec 18—Gen Grant was asked personally this evening whether he had, as was announced in some morning journals, accepted the presidency of the Nicaraguan Canal Company tendered him by Admiral Ammen yesterday. "I hardly know enough about the scheme to say much about it," remarked Gen Grant. But urged his questioner, "you can say whether or not you have accepted the presidency of the company." "Yes," replied the general. "I can satisfy you on that point. I certainly have not accepted the presidency of it."

Grant Gets a Badge.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 18—This afternoon Gen Grant spent about half an hour at the national department headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, smoking and shaking hands with such comrades as were presented. The committee on order of Post 1, on behalf of that Post of which Gen Grant is a member, presented the latter with a handsome Grand Army of the Republic badge.

[illegible], Dec. 18—At Carlisle to-day Judge [illegible] refused a new trial in the case of Catherine Zell, and sentenced her to be hanged.

The Final Count.

[illegible], Me., Dec. 17.—The full details of the count made by the governor and council show the following results: In the senate, the republicans are given 20 members, republicans 11. In the house the fusionists 78, republicans 61. Five cities, with twelve republican representatives,—Portland, Bath, Lewiston, Rockland and Saco—are without representation. The house will thus be 12 members short in organization. The actual result of the election according to official returns, before the governor and council, was as follows: Senate—republicans, 19, fusionists, 12. House—republicans 90, fusionists, 61; net change in senate 16; in house, 46. By the election the republicans had a majority of 36 on joint ballot. As counted by the governor and council, the fusionists have a majority of [illegible] on joint ballot. The republicans claim that the omissions and changes were wholly on technical grounds. The certificates to senators and representatives were sent out by [illegible]. The canvass of county officers is not completed. A committee of the [illegible] is engaged in preparing a statement of the count.

Indignant Denunciation.

[illegible], Dec. 18—A dispatch from Shaw [illegible] says the counting out of that town at [illegible] is the only topic of conversation on [illegible] and is denounced by the democrats as well as the republicans. An indignation meeting is called for Saturday evening. A dispatch from Farmington mentions the existence of great indignation there.

The mayor and aldermen of Rockland passed a resolution to-night condemning the action of the governor and council.

Death of an Eminent Jurist

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec 17—Samuel E. Perkins, justice of the supreme court of Indiana, died at midnight to-night, at his residence in this city. Mr Perkins was one of the oldest and most eminent jurists in the state of the west. He was twice elected to the supreme bench.

Mine Caved.

[illegible], Dec. 18—Jacob Bover was killed and [illegible] Stemmaller and George Race were injured by the fall of the top coal in a mine.

Clearinghouse Statement.

NEW YORK, Dec 18—The Public's clearing house statement on the second week in December, shows that the following cities [illegible]: New York 89 8, Boston 55 3, Philadelphia [illegible], Chicago 62 6, Cincinnati 21 1, St Louis [illegible], New Orleans 17 5, Baltimore 37 9, Milwaukee 72 1, Louisville 46 3, Pittsburg [illegible], Providence 36 3, Kansas City 79 4, Cleveland 23 8, Indianapolis 33 08, New Haven [illegible], Detroit 63 5, Syracuse 23 6, San Francisco 10 07. The increase in the aggregate of exchanges at all cities which have reported, except New York, was 5 per cent last week, against 39 9 per cent the week preceding.

The Public says the advance in prices of iron and products of iron has been much greater than the advance in the prices of wheat and other grain or of cotton, and consequently a larger increase in exchanges at Philadelphia or Pittsburg may be attributed to the change in prices than at Chicago, Milwaukee or New Orleans. Important differences have been caused also by a division of traffic from one city to another as new rail combinations have opened better facilities for transportation.

WASHINGTON CITY

The Chinese before Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec 18. The letter of [illegible] originally stating the views of California on the question of Chinese immigration, which was laid before the house of representatives by Speaker Randall yesterday, has been referred by that body to its committee on education and labor. W[illegible] of Kentucky, chairman of this committee, expressed to the California representatives to day his desire to [illegible] on for the [illegible] of all [illegible] and inquired what steps they [illegible]. [illegible] Christmas recess [illegible] be ready for work [illegible] action will doubtless be [illegible] Hendrick B. Wright [illegible] also expressed a [illegible] congressional action on the subject.

Important to Oregon

Senator Slater to day [illegible] providing for an allowance [illegible] custom-house duties [illegible] of [illegible] United States [illegible] fruits, vegetables, etc. [illegible] now provided by law [illegible] would amount to $10 [illegible] the cost used for the exposition [illegible] [illegible].

WASHINGTON, Dec 18. It is very probable that General [illegible] will [illegible] Grant [illegible] Mexico [illegible].

Confirmed

WASHINGTON, Dec 18—The senate confirmed N H Fitch receiver of public moneys at [illegible] Colorado; J H Moore register of the land office at Helena, Montana; [illegible] of Michigan, for the [illegible] of [illegible] agent, Wyoming; [illegible] M Hubbard postmaster at Long Point [illegible].

The first section says slavery is hereby abolished on the island of Cuba in accordance with the enactment of this law. Next Tuesday the whole law will pass by a large majority.

To be Set Apart for Education

WASHINGTON Dec 18—The House committee on education and labor agreed upon the bill introduced by Representative Goode last session and ordered a favorable report to be made to the house. The bill provides that the net proceeds of the sale of public lands shall be forever consecrated and set apart for the education of the people.

Salaries of Postmasters.

The bill reported by Bailey to day from the senate committee on postoffices and post roads is a general measure substituted for the various pending bills which provided special relief for various postmasters entitled to readjustment and increase in their salaries. It is estimated that about 7000 postmasters principally in Iowa, Kansas and other western states will be entitled to its benefits, and that the aggregate amount required to pay their claims will be something over $500 000.

Increased.

The national bank currency was increased $4 417 000 since November.

Sherman Interviewed

CHICAGO, Dec. 18—The Tribune's Washington correspondent called upon Secretary Sherman this evening and found him unconcerned with regard to the proceedings of the national committee, as if his own name had never been mentioned in connection with possible candidacy for the presidency. In reply to an inquiry as to the political significance of the election of Senator Cameron to the chairmanship the secretary said in his opinion it had none whatever. The senator he said had been chosen by a small majority and the selection was eminently a wise one. He thought his majority would have been larger if it had not been given out that Cameron was a Grant man and sought the position on that basis alone. The fact is the secretary said, that the senator had doubtless been chosen because he was known to be a man of character and energy. He is, continued the secretary, a friend of Grant's and a friend of Blaine's. I know he is my friend. I really don't know which side they placed me on, but I favored Cameron's selection because I know him to be a man of action and sagacity.

The Next Census.

WASHINGTON, Dec 18—The census committee of the house has agreed to recommend an increase of the compensation of enumerators in sparsely populated territories to $2 per diem. Several bills before the committee were discussed to-day and General Walker was heard upon all points.

The River and Harbor Bill.

The house committee on commerce has appointed a sub committee to prepare the river and harbor bill based on the war department estimates.

Eaton's Tariff Commission.

Senator Eaton's bill creating a tariff commission provides for nine members to be selected from civil life by the president and approved by the senate whose duties are to investigate all questions relating to agricultural manufacturing and mining interests of the United States, so far as may be necessary to the establishment of a judicious tariff, and report to congress.

The Congressional Divy.

The secretary of the treasury informed the sergeant-at-arms of the house that he can draw certificates instead of silver for 20 per cent of the salaries of members if he preferred.

The Indiana Contest.

McCabe, the contestant for the seat of Orth of the 9th Indiana district, filed a statement to-day alleging fraud intimidation and illegal voting by the republicans. The items of illegality are given.

Report on War Claims.

Representative Thompson of Kentucky chairman of the sub-committee having charge of the classification of all claims now pending before the house committee on war claims, presented its report to the full committee to-day. The main feature of the report is the declaration that the government is not legally responsible for what are properly known as rebel war claims and that the claimants are dependent entirely upon the generosity of the government for the payment of them. The report and recommendations of the sub committee will doubtless be adopted by the full committee.

AN EXCUSE FOR FRAUD.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

CHICAGO, Dec 18—Hon E F Pillsbury answering a telegram from the editor of the Chicago Daily News telegraphs from Augusta to day a long defense of the action of the Maine returning board:

The apparent republican majority for the members of the legislature was obtained by wholesale and systematic bribery, bulldozing and fraud. There was a popular majority for governor in opposition to the republicans in many districts giving a fusion majority for governor. The republicans succeeded in getting a majority of members for the legislature by trickery and other frauds. The governor and council have not based their action of these frauds in any instance not having jurisdiction, but they have strictly followed the constitution and thrown out such returns as were fatally defective whether republican or democratic. In some counties more democratic than republican returns have been thus rejected. The republicans have been in the habit for years of secretly returning defective republican returns to town officers for correction but took advantage of the defects in the democratic returns. During twenty-three years of republican rule they have never lost an officer by reason of such defects while the democrats have lost more or less nearly every year. This served to make democratic town officers more careful and republicans more careless. The present governor and council have held the republicans to the strict letter of the constitution and law. [illegible] is an anti-republican majority in both branches. They have in no case traveled outside of the precedents established by the republicans themselves and in most cases their action was based upon opinions given by judges of the supreme court. For instance judges gave an opinion in 1875 that the governor and council could not count votes returned for William H Smith and W H Smith [illegible] the same office as having been given [illegible] the same persons [illegible] this year changes the result [illegible] a large number [illegible] was fatally defective in not complying with [illegible] the name of [illegible] with the number of votes against [illegible] 140 votes were returned as [illegible] [illegible].

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Army Bill.

VIENNA, Dec 18—The government's army bill was to-day discussed in the Cisleithan parliament. The second paragraph failed to get the necessary two-thirds majority and the whole bill was therefore rejected. As the upper house will probably vote on it again, the two houses will meet in joint convention for final decision. If the bill be not carried Count Taaffe, president of the council, will resign.

The Emperor's Reply.

VIENNA, Dec. 18—Emperor Francis Joseph replying to the address from the delegations to day said: "My relations with all foreign powers are most friendly. My close understanding with the German empire offers strength for the guarantee of that universal tranquility which ensures peaceful labor, and its full development will be established. It may be anticipated that the continuous execution of the treaty of Berlin, will restore perfect peace to the Balkan peninsula. The ministry has excluded from its programme all demands on the country not absolutely required by the interests of the monarchy." This appears to be a declaration in favor of the army bill.

A Compromise.

VIENNA Dec 18—The upper house of the reichsrath to day again voted the army bill in the form in which it was originally introduced by the government. Both houses thereupon selected representatives for a committee of conference.

Adopted the Second Time

PARIS, Dec 18—The chamber of deputies has again adopted amendments to the budget reducing the episcopal salaries despite the fact that the senate had already rejected such amendments.

The Nihilists.

A letter to the Cologne Gazette from St Petersburg asserts that the reason the police have so little success in discovering nihilists is that the evil is hidden where the police do not venture to look. The conspirators are to be found in the drawing rooms of the rich and noble; hence a police in the employ of a court within whose very circle these people carry on their games is powerless against the nihilists.

Famine.

BERLIN Dec 17—The famine in Silesia has spread to four more districts.

Acquisition of Railroads.

The upper house of the Prussian diet adopted a bill providing for the acquisition of several private railroads by the state.

Promoted.

Mr Jenner secretary of the British legation at Copenhagen has been appointed consul general at Havana.

The Slavery Bill.

MADRID Dec 17—The senate to day discussed the slavery abolition bill.

West India Dissatisfied.

The West Indian members of the cortes are so irritated at the continued crisis that many intend returning to Havana in the spring.

The opposition declare they will accept nothing but the explanation by Senor Canovas Del Castillo in the presence of the offended members.

Forbidden.

The cabinet has refused to allow the abolitionist meeting, authorized by Gen Campos to be held here.

Newspaper Prosecutions.

The home office has authorized the prosecution of seven newspapers here and six in the provinces for criticising the new government.

Desires the Crisis to End

King Alfonso summoned Canovas Del Castillo to the palace and expressed a desire that an end be put to the crisis.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

WASHINGTON Dec 18—The text of Price's bill adopted by the house committee as a substitute for Buckner's is as follows:

That Continued Story

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 17—The hearing of the opposition of John H Burke to the allowance of the account filed by the executors of O Brien deceased was resumed to day one witness only testifying. James H Gager produced the account showing the sales by Mackey, Fair, Flood & O Brien jointly interested between May 1878 and July 13th of the same year. Con Virginia 3,600 shares with dividends netting $812 702 and 18 505 shares California netting with dividends $826 273 all sold in open board—O Brien's interest being three sixteenths of the whole amount. They had no other stocks except Ophir and Yellow Jacket. The accounts of Mackey and Fair are kept on the books of Flood & O Brien. No Yellow Jacket or Ophir was sold prior to July 1878. Witness stated that the $1 788 122 included in the account of the executors was the amount of O Brien's interest in the firm of Flood & O Brien which had been turned over to the executors in money and property up to Aug 7 1879 but that was all of O Brien's interest in the firm. Moneys are being collected and transactions occurring continually. The examination was curtailed some the referee holding that the transactions of the firm of Flood & O Brien, which do not appear in the account filed by the executors cannot be inquired into. On Saturday it will be resumed when a further detailed statement will be presented—those already in not coming up to the opponent's requirements, though the assets and liabilities of the firm at the time of O Brien's death, and the transactions occurring since the filing of the executor's account, and not appearing therein, will not be included the referee holding them unnecessary.

SEATTLE Dec 18—The five Cassiar miners who left Victoria for the Skagit mines on the 28th ult via Fort Hope, arrived here last evening via Skagit river. They were nine days making the trip from Victoria to Hope and thence seven days to the mines. They prospected Ruby creek extensively. Each located a claim and report very favorably. They state that men are constantly arriving and locating claims. At the time they left the snow was five feet deep in the mountains, and but little on the creek.

Steamer Sails

The P M S S Co's steamer City of Chester sails hence at 6 o clock to-morrow morning for San Francisco with a fair passenger list and the following freight: From Utsalady 12,497 sacks oats 246 sacks potatoes; from Seattle 99 sacks of oats 100 sacks wheat, 8 boxes apples 5 boxes potatoes 23 packages miscellaneous freight.

The Skagit Mines.

PORT TOWNSEND, Dec 18—An experienced Cariboo miner passed through this city to day on his way from the Skagit gold mines where he and six others have located 1750 feet which they intend working in spring. He reports the work heretofore done as irregular and not of the proper mining character. He washed out about 60 cents to four pans on the upper dirt, but had not reached the bedrock which is probably eight feet from the surface. He thinks the diggings will pay $15 a day to the hand when properly managed. He thinks at least 5000 people will leave for the mines in the spring and considers the mines extensive. About 70 claims have already been located. He thinks the trail from British Columbia via Fort Hope will be preferred to that from Seattle on account of the low rates of freightage on the former.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Ussher Murderers

VICTORIA, Dec 17—Passengers by Monday's steamer from the upper country say that Ussher was shot by the youngest of the McLeans a lad of 16. On being approached by Ussher and his party the outlaw opened fire, one of the shots wounding Ussher who dismounted and approached Hare leaving his pistol which he does not appear to have used in his saddle holster. Hare threw his pistol down and attacked Ussher with his knife cutting him across the face and bearing him to the ground. Young McLean then came up and shot him through the head. In the meantime it appears firing had been maintained between the other McLeans and McLeod and Palmer during which McLeod and the oldest McLean were wounded. Having emptied their pistols and seeing that Ussher was dead the two surviving officers rode off. The murderers then proceeded to Palmer's house and enquired for him and on being told that he had gone to Kamloops rode off the elder McLean remarking that he had an account to settle with him. They then went to P J Trapp's and finding no one at home took a Henry rifle and other arms. It is supposed that their next visit was to Kelly's [illegible] that they met with resistance from him. He was resolute and determined [illegible]. At all events it seems certain that they deliberately murdered him. The wound received by the leader of the gang was probably the cause of their shutting themselves up in the cabin [illegible] They made several [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] they were beaten back and [illegible] Friday [illegible] the [illegible] two Indians were wounded.

Steele from the committee on agriculture reported the bill originally introduced by Sapp of Iowa to encourage inter-state immigration authorizing the commissioner of agriculture to collect and publish all facts which might be of value to immigrants. The report which accompanied the bill was an amusing document. Lefevre from the committee on agriculture, reported the resolution instructing the committee to the consideration of such measures as may tend to promote the agricultural interests of the country, to investigate the system and working of the department of agriculture and to report the necessary legislation for the promotion and protection of that industry with power to send for persons and papers and with an appropriation of $30 000 to defray expenses.

Scales chairman of the committee on Indian affairs reported back the senate bill authorizing the secretary of the interior to negotiate with the Ute Indians for the relinquishment of their reservation in Colorado and their removal and settlement elsewhere with an amendment requiring the consent of the Indians to the cession of any part of their reservation and providing that no agreement shall be valid unless agreed to by three quarters of all the adult male Indians who have not forfeited their treaty rights unless confirmed by congress. He asked for immediate consideration of the bill.

The Giant Powder Co. authorize us to contradict such statements, and we are ready to show, at our office to any one interested the results of experiments made with Giant, Hercules, Vulcan, Vigorite and Safety powders, proving most conclusively to all unprejudiced persons that the

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC[illegible]

ONE OF THE ISSUES

A living issue with the American people to-day is that of the currency of the country. It is said that there is now in the vaults of the treasury four times as much silver as the people will want for the next six months. Let the mints stop coining for that period a currency that is not wanted, and turn out the quarter and half eagles that will pass into circulation, and constitute a reserve against the foreign demand that will arise when the crops abroad are good and the balance of trade may be against the United States.

The importance of the question ought to force itself upon the attention of congress. Its settlement one way or the other may determine whether the swelling prosperity of the country shall be artificially increased, only to lead on to another period of revulsion, distress and depression, or shall be bottomed on a sound financial basis and last for a generation. Congress ought to meet this issue with frankness and courage. To shirk it is a confession of cowardice or incapacity, or both. When this shirking is the result of a deliberate determination to abandon the duties of statesmanship because they conflict with partisan maneuvering for a presidential campaign, it is worse. There is no such general unsoundness or ignorance in the republican party that the leaders may fear to ask it to do right upon this question, but the way to build the party up and strengthen it for the contest in 1880, is to meet these questions boldly and fearlessly, and take a position upon it that cannot be mistaken. The country wants to hear no uncertain sound upon a matter which comes home to every man's business and every man's pocket. And there is need that it be settled fully and conclusively, that none of the doubts and perplexities which a constant vacillation has for years imposed upon the business and industrial interests of the country, may be left to disturb or check the era of prosperity which has dawned upon us.

FIRE MATTERS.

The frequency of fires in this city of late and the vexatious delays which have occurred in getting the engines at work upon some of these fires have caused a great many who have large interests at stake to give more serious attention than before to the question, whether some change should not be made in the management of the department. There is no fault to find with the individual members of the department. They perform an arduous and dangerous work, and perform it earnestly and voluntarily. They do it well, too, considering the lack of system and want of good management which characterizes their government at times. A vast improvement would be made by using horses to some of the engines, and the others could be held in reserve at ordinary alarms, not being called out, only in case their services are needed. A great point in the efficiency of a department is the rapidity with which it gets to the scene of a fire and to work. A few minutes of time in the incipiency of a fire is often of immense value. The growth of Portland and the important interests at stake demand prompt measures to heighten the efficiency of the department here by every possible means. This ought to be done without increasing its expensiveness which is already quite large for a city of Portland's population. A prominent insurance man who has examined the subject thoroughly states that the cost of maintaining the Portland department was half as great as that of running the department of San Francisco, though the latter city has about four times the amount of apparatus to handle which Portland has. The improvement in the efficiency of the department ought to be made with no more outlay than the present.

GEN. GRANT'S CANDIDACY.

There is a faint shadowing in our dispatches this morning that the name of Gen. Grant will not be presented to the national republican convention as a candidate for the presidency. We believe this will be received by the country with satisfaction, as there are great numbers everywhere who, while honoring Grant for his services to the nation, are opposed to the establishment of the precedent of a third term. Many of the leading republican papers of the country are candidly expressing opinions unfavorable to Gen. Grant's nomination. Whatever of mistake or wrong there was in his action as chief executive of the nation for eight years, would be laid at his door, and to some extent effectively, were he a candidate for re-election; though no charge of corruption against him personally, has ever been made which could be shown to have any foundation whatever. Hence there is a very general feeling among republicans that some weapons which the enemy might wield, would be pointless if another than the great American general were their standard-bearer. Should General Grant accept the position of president of the transcontinental canal company, he will then be virtually out of the political contest. The question of his acceptance of the presidency of the canal scheme will be determined within the next week, and the matter of presidential candidacies will take a more definite shape.

The annual report of the attorney general says: "The most important decision announced at the last (October, 1878) term was that sustaining the constitutionality of the act approved May 7, 1878, and familiarly known as the 'Thurman law,' requiring the creation by the Pacific railroads of a sinking fund to provide means for the payment at maturity of their indebtedness to the United States. This decision renders that dismissing the suit known as the 'credit mobilier case,' instituted against the Union Pacific Railroad company, less important to the United States than it would otherwise have been. The relations of the United States to the Pacific railroads have been prolific of discussion and litigation, and it is hoped and believed that the chief grounds of dispute have been finally settled by the result of this decision upon the 'Thurman law.' This decision has been acquiesced in by the railroads, and as a consequence large sums of money have in some instances already been paid into the United States treasury."

The national republican committee in selecting Senator Don Cameron as chairman, probably did so without reference to his predilection for or against any of the prominent candidates for the party nomination for the presidency. Secretary Sherman's views as to the reasons for the committee's choice of a chairman are very likely the true ones. A man with great energy and activity in the conduct of the campaign was wanted, and Cameron possesses these qualifications to a high degree. He is well known throughout the United States, and his reputation as a [illegible] worker in behalf of the party is firmly established. The republicans of the country may rest assured that the campaign under the direction of Chairman Cameron will be vigorous, [illegible] started.

By our dispatches it will be seen that Senator Slater introduced yesterday into the senate a bill to remit the custom house duties on tin on all tin cans exported from this country, containing fruits, salmon, etc. This is a very important measure to the canning interests of Oregon, which annually sends out millions of dollars' worth of canned meats and fish. Senator Slater no doubt brought this measure forward directly in the interest of our fishermen and cannery men. The passage of this bill will annually remit to Columbia river canners nearly the sum of $30,000. We sincerely hope that it will pass congress and become a law.

We are in receipt of a number of communications upon different subjects, some of which are of very little importance, and hardly worthy of publication, in the crowded state of our columns. Others are valuable, but are unavoidably crowded out for the present. We hope correspondents will be patient, if their letters which do not contain important news, are delayed in their appearance.

Jacmel, a port in San Domingo is disseminating an article of yellow fever which appears to be the genuine thing. A vessel arrived at New York from Jacmel on the 21 day of this month, all of the crew but three having died on the passage. The captain reports that when he left Jacmel there were two vessels in the port the crews of which lay dead on the decks.

The estate of the late Senator Chandler, says the Detroit News, will not exceed $1,800,000. It consists of twelve stores and a fine dwelling in Detroit, a fine dwelling in Washington, an extensive farm near Lansing, Michigan, a quantity of pine lands, and $100,000 in bank stock.

Last week Gould visited the Missouri river towns and set the people wild. They all think he is going to make their villages great railroad centers, teeming with business and crowded with a flourishing population.

FRIDAY MORNING DEC 19 1879

CITY

FIRE.—An alarm of fire was sounded at an early hour Thursday morning. It was [illegible] ascertained that the dwelling house at [illegible] corner of Morrison and Third streets was on fire. The companies arrived in a short time and after a brief but lively struggle the fire was subdued. This was not [illegible] until most of the contents of the building were destroyed and the house itself badly damaged. The house was occupied by Miss Murray, a young woman who [illegible] not enjoy a faultless reputation. She with two [illegible] lost all the [illegible] of the house [illegible] dresses and some jewelry. The [illegible] including $500 in the house at [illegible] the furniture. The latter was insured by the proprietress for $[illegible]. There was no insurance on the [illegible], the policy having expired about two months ago and was not renewed. Mr J [illegible] Mayer was the former owner of the building, which now belongs to Mr F Corbet.

DEATH OF MRS KENDRICK.—The friends of Mrs Kate E Kendrick will be pained to learn of the somewhat unexpected death of that lady. Mrs. Kendrick departed this life Wednesday morning in this city at the residence of Dr Davis after a brief illness. The deceased has resided in this city for [illegible] years past. She was a lady of fine literary attainments and possessed of rare [illegible] accomplishments. A husband, a little daughter and a mother, all of whom are residing in California, mourn the demise of a wife, mother and daughter. Yesterday the sad news was telegraphed to the mother of the deceased who is living at Sacramento. Instructions were given to place the remains in a casket and forward them to that place for interment. The body will be shipped to-morrow on the outgoing steamer.

THE CHINAMAN LEE.—The body of a Chinaman was brought down to the city yesterday on the steamer A. A. McCully, who died suddenly on board the boat while she was between Oswego and Milwaukie. Coroner [illegible] was notified and on the arrival of the steamer took charge of the remains and removing them to the morgue proceeded to hold an inquest. After examining several witnesses the jury returned substantially the following verdict: That the deceased came to his death from natural causes on the 18th of December on board the steamer A. A. McCully while that boat was coming down the Willamette river between Oswego and Milwaukie.

A MATTER OF IMPORTANCE.—Fourth street from the upper limit of the city to Ash street is obstructed by the temporary railroad track, which is extremely annoying to pedestrians and almost impassable for vehicles. Our fire engines cannot be pulled over the obstruction without danger of serious damage, so that in case of fire back of Fourth street the department would be powerless. The danger is so important that no delay in remedying it should occur. The street commissioner should see to it to-day that the track in the street leading from each of the engine houses be made crossable by the construction of wide aprons.

A VALUABLE PUBLICATION.—At an early day next month (January) the annual review of the Commercial Reporter will be issued. It will contain seventy-two columns of [illegible] matter and also reading matter giving valuable information of interest to all classes of readers. There will be nearly 10,000 copies issued and we have no doubt many of our readers will be pleased to learn that items relating to any enterprise, to the progress of any line of business of any town or of any county, will be published without charge by sending the same to the editor of the Reporter.

[illegible] PREPARATIONS.—The Taylor street M E Sunday school has appointed the following members as an executive committee on Christmas festivities, with power to add to their number as many workers as they [illegible], viz: Mrs O Clay, Mrs T N Craw[illegible], Mrs J H Acton, Miss Mollie Caples, Messrs J K Gill, T L Nicklin and J [illegible] Brown. Three hundred of Biglow & [illegible] new "Christmas Carols" have been ordered, and something new and mysterious is hinted at by the committee, while the assurance of great pleasure is held out to the [illegible].

TO BUILD TOGETHER.—Negotiations have been in progress in New York for the past [illegible], and will, in all probability, be consummated within a short time, by which the Oregon Navigation and Railway Company and the Northern Pacific Railroad Company will together build a road west from Ainsworth to The Dalles. The Northern Pacific has acquired the right of way and land grant on both sides of the Columbia river. The anticipated consolidation will remove many legal difficulties that might have been in the way of the Oregon company.

[illegible] COAL.—The steamer Gazelle will arrive from Kalama to-day with a hundred tons of Seattle coal from the mines of the [illegible] Coal Company for coaling the steamship Oregon on her trip to San Francisco, to be followed by another hundred tons for the steamship State of California next [illegible]. No coal product has ever come into [illegible] popularity like this, and its excellence and cheapness makes it absolutely certain of maintaining its own against the competition of other kinds of fuel in this market.

INCORPORATION.—Yesterday articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the county clerk, of the Great Council, State of Oregon, Improved Order of Red Men. They have now en route from Chicago 22,000 pounds of machinery for the works and will be ready to supply their customers in the spring with unlimited quantities of the very best article. WM. SCHEFFLER'S ST. HELENA

SANITARY, VACUUM DISTILLED GRAPE BRANDY AND GOOD OLD EDGE HILL WINES

Mr Scheffler is sole proprietor of the principle known as the vacuum process of distilling, by which the fusil oils are left with the residue and not incorporated with the brandy, leaving it pure and free from all deleterious substances which does and must exist in all alcoholic liquors distilled by the usual process of boiling heat. California Physicians have pronounced their preference of it to all other. Doctor Cox, government revenue officer at Cincinnati Ohio, says in his report that after ten years of close investigation he can safely say that very few of any pure wines or brandy are exported from the Old Continent to this. He has found none in his many analyses—that all are doctored before leaving France. The French Consul at Buenos Ayres writes home to his government that so much complaint is made there of the appearance of litharge and other dangerous drugs in all their French wines, that there is great danger of losing the trade of the Argentine States. Other proofs could be cited were it necessary to prove the superiority of the best class of California wines and brandy. Orders from responsible parties addressed to Wm Scheffler or Geo H Beach, St. Helena, Napa county, Cal., will receive prompt attention.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles, when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

White's Prairie Flower.

Taken before retiring, will insure a good night's rest with an awakening in the rosy morn to health, courage and vigor. For coated tongue, bad breath, sick headache or any disturbance arising from dyspepsia or torpid liver it is without a peer. Its action on disease is entirely different from any medicine ever introduced, quieting pains almost instantly. The hue and cry raised against it by patent medicine men who have foreseen in its advent the destruction of their nefarious business and the thousands of unsolicited testimonials flowing in from all parts of the New World is a sure indication of its great merits. Trial size at all Drug Stores. Half pound bottles 75 cents.

FRIDAY MORNING DEC 19 1879

BEET SUGAR

PUYALLUP W T [illegible]

To the Editor of the Oregonian

That more than a [illegible] of [illegible] of beet sugar is manufactured in Europe for every day of the year and that [illegible] the world's supply of this staple article is made from the beet are facts that we Americans in our bustle and hurry of business pursuits have generally overlooked or if known have not given the subject that thought which its importance [illegible]

The wonderful increase [illegible] sugar gauged by [illegible] and which [illegible] by each advance [illegible] or forward steps in the arts and sciences until it is now almost passed into a trite saying that the civilization of communities [illegible] by the quantity of soap and sugar they use have attracted the attention [illegible] political economist [illegible] and the mercantile manufacturer to the subject [illegible] showing the great importance of this [illegible] of the world's supply of sugar [illegible] within a comparatively recent period has attracted still greater attention in the more northern latitudes especially [illegible] caused [illegible] by partial [illegible] supply of sugar from the cane and from the beet to the large supply in Europe coming [illegible] from the northern portions of the continent [illegible] that the per centage of sugar was much greater [illegible] beets grown [illegible] were [illegible] hot and dry [illegible]

Impressed with the importance of this [illegible] if developed the writer acting upon the suggestion of Mr [illegible] who has [illegible] and study [illegible] subject obtained from the farm of J W [illegible] of this [illegible] valley a sack of sugar beets raised the present year [illegible] sent Mr Marne that a sample and had another sample tested at the Alvarado beet sugar works in California.

The sample tested at the Alvarado works yielded eleven per cent of cane sugar, by the process known as polarization which that sent to Professor Hilgard of the Berkely University yielded [illegible] per cent which would yield from 1611 to 1675 lbs cane sugar to the ton of beets. Professor Hilgard wrote Mr Marsellat. "This you perceive is a tip top beet and you can do no better than to get seed of it"

After diligent search through numerous authorities and examinations of more than twenty tests of beets here and in Europe I have failed to find a report of a sample of beets richer in cane sugar than those raised in the Puyallup valley and tested by Professor Hilgard

The writer visited the Alvarado beet sugar manufactory during the month of November just past and there found an establishment in which there was invested two hundred thousand dollars employing nearly a hundred men in the factory alone and turning out thirteen thousands pounds of sugar daily from eighty tons of beets consumed. Taking a drive through the surrounding country there was seen literally "miles" of beet fields wherein was estimated to be twenty thousand tons of beets awaiting the process of manufacturing, which were raised on land that was valued at from three to five hundred dollars per acre. That this northern coast is much better adapted to this business in all the requisites of soil climate and fuel than any other portion of the Pacific slope and in fact of any portion of the United States there can be no doubt.

Here we have cheap lands certain crops and long growing seasons never fearing that machinery would have to lie idle in consequence of overflow or droughts. Our alluvial bottom lands particularly are easily worked and are just the soil to produce the greatest yield with the least labor being a deep sandy loam and not liable to bake or become cloddy. In an experience of twenty seven years the writer has never known a failure of crops on these lands.

The cost of producing sugar in the Alvarado factory is now less than 6 cents per pound according to the figures given by the parties themselves. Of this, the next heaviest item after the beets is heat, upon which a saving of over $10 000 for each season's run can be made from our cheap fuel alone in such a factory as is now running at Alvarado as shown by actual comparative costs of the fuel at Alvarado and one on Puget Sound near our great coal fields or the timbered regions.

Another feature of this great business as developed in Europe is the increase of the wheat yield following after the beet crop and the capacity shown for the fattening of large numbers of cattle and sheep from the pulp of the beet after the sugar is extracted. The value of this article alone in one department of France is reported as over $5 000 000 annually one ton of the pulp being worth a ton and a half of the beets. Of this there is about 20 per cent of the weight of the beets used.

The greatest difficulties encountered in establishing this business in communities not financially strong is the impossibility of undertaking it upon a small scale, as capitalists are shy of the venture because of there having been several failures. These however, have been from causes not necessarily fatal to the enterprise but each has been the result of some mistakes, either in the location, failure of crops or mismanagement. Yet when we consider that it is scarcely ten years since the first real attempt to establish this business in the United states was undertaken and that by individual exertions and without government aid or protection, with the single exception of the state of Maine, no wonder that we have made haste slowly.

When the first Napoleon gave this interest the fostering care of the government in 1811 he gave with a lavish hand but it soon became self sustaining, and now yields an immense revenue to the government from the taxes in turn levied upon it. From France the business soon spread to Germany and other parts of Europe until as we said in the outset, that one third of the world's supply of sugar is obtained from the beet.

As an example of the immensity of the business an account is given us of a single establishment at Waghousel in the duchy of Baden where three thousand people and sixteen million dollars of capital are employed in producing sugar from dried beets, occupying buildings that cover twelve acres of ground.

These dried beets, weighing only twenty per cent of the original weight of the beets and containing from fifty to eighty per cent of sugar are cheaply transported and will keep for an indefinite length of time. And here may lie the solution of this question. Small farmers with their dry houses as we now have them here in this now famous hop raising district with their regular acreage of beets, the product to be dried and shipped to some convenient center for manufacturing and refining. The prices now paid for beets at the two factories now in operation in California are respectively $4 and $5 50 per ton delivered at the factory. The cost of producing at the old Sacramento factory now discontinued in consequence of the overflow, was $2 70 per ton. From experiments made by eighteen different persons in the states of Delaware and New Jersey the yield varied from thirteen tons to as high as forty nine and a half tons per acre, and the cost varied from sixty-four cents to $4 05 per ton making an average yield of twenty four and a half tons, at an average cost of $2 42 per ton.

The farmers in this valley are taking a lively interest in this question and propose this year to thoroughly test the question of cost of producing by planting not less than twenty acres on as many different farms and as a stimulant to extra care a premium of one hundred dollars will be given for the best acre and fifty dollars for the second best. There can be no risk in this venture as the product will be of the value of its cost, or more for feed upon the farm for fattening stock or for milch cows. The co operation of other localities is desired that the experiments may be wide spread and upon as many different locations and variety of soils as possible. The seed can no doubt be obtained from either of the sugar factories at Alvarado or Soquel California, at cost or from the seed stores, though it would be preferable to obtain the variety raised for the factories.

THURSDAY EVENING Dec 18

The wheat market since Monday has been marked with complete inactivity and unsettled state of prices. The upper docks are almost full of wheat and buyers do not consider it safe at this season to store in lower docks. There are only two unchartered vessels in port and they are held too high to meet the views of shippers. The large supply, the continued scarcity of shipping and the decline in Liverpool have combined to demoralize the market here and buyers evince no desire to lay in any more wheat and have no place to put it if they did.

There is no important changes in other products which are generally active
